I received your letter of the 9th and am happy to reply that we have a wealth of information on the Weeks family of Vigo Co. (Linton Twp.)

To begin with I have enclosed 5 photocopies of the 1850 Linton Twp. Census including the Weeks and Jesse Barbre (your great-great-great grandfather). He was 36 in 1850, but his place of birth is not given in this Census. The library would appreciate 50¢ to cover this cost plus any additional postage to mail the extra weight.

Hamptons are also mentioned in the 1850 Census. (Afford Hampton was 49 in 1850, and his wife Huldah was 44. They had several children.)

From Vigo County Marriage Records, 1818-1850, I found these listings:

John J. Weeks married Adaline Thomas Oct. 21, 1847 Asa Frakes, Preacher
Joseph A. Weeks married Lucinda T. Pound Nov. 6, 1849
Lewis L. Weeks married Sarah Ann Kelly Apr. 9, 1845 Benoni
Trueblood
Jesse Barbre married Susan Weeks June 7, 1836 Harrison
Elliott, pr.

The following death records are listed in Vigo Co. Cem. Records, which includes those born before 1830 that lived to maturity:

- (1) John H. Weeks b. Mar. 7, 1825 d. Apr. 3, 1863
- (2) John J. Weeks married Adeline Thomas b. Nov. 23 (?), 1828 d. Apr. 7, 1907
- (3) Joseph F. Weeks d. Jan 22, 1867 aged 39 yrs. 2 m. 14 days m. Lucinda L. b. 1827 d. 1917
- (4) Lewis d. Apr. 26, 1849 aged 69 yrs. 8 m. 11 d. (THIS IS PROBABLY THE ONE YOU MENTIONED IN YOUR LETTER.) married Susannah E. b. Jan. 29, 1796 d. June 13, 1890
- (5) Lewis L. Weeks ? married Sarah A. d. Jan.
19, 1895 aged 69 y. 4m 25 d.
- (6) Two William L. Weeks are listed, one being born July 7, 1794 d. Aug. 21, 1875.
- (7) The other William L. Weeks' life dates are not given but his wife, Nancy, was b. Mar. 2, 1797 d. Oct. 22, 1845

All are buried at Second Prairie Creek Baptist Church Cemetery, which I have been to on a few occasions. The cemetery is located between the villages of Pimento and Prairie Creek.

Local newspapers might be a good source of obituary information in case you are interested though our catchfile and surname file fails to mention the Weeks'.

In regard to your question posed in the postscript - "No," I do not know of anyone doing research on the Weeks, but one or two are researching other Linton Twp. families that could have been related to the Weeks' by marriage. The Kester-Pound families encompassed many, many persons. And, I noticed in the marriage records mentioned previously that Joseph A. Weeks married Lucinda T. Pound.

Perhaps you could get in touch with another researcher by writing the genealogical query column in the local newspaper. The address is : Genealogy, Dorothy Clark, Terre Haute Tribune Star, 721 Wabash Ave., Terre Haute IN 47808.

According to the Vigo County Atlas of 1895, the Weeks owned farmland between Pimento, Indiana, and Second Prairie Creek Baptist Church.

There is so much information relating to the Weeks' that the space in this letter would fail me. In Oakey's History of Terre Haute and Vigo County at least 2 dozen Weeks' are listed. (I think many of them are descendants of your ancestors.)

Bradsby's History of Vigo County contains a biographical sketch of Louis L. Weeks who was born in Kentucky, November 14, 1820 (160 years ago today) and is a son of William L. and Nancy (Kester) Weeks. (Remember the Pound-Kester families I was telling you about earlier?) He came to Vigo Co. in 1838. Louis L. was the oldest of their 9 children. Louis L. married Sarah Ann Kelley on Apr. 9, 1845. He taught a subscription school for 2 terms and was a clerk in the Baptist Church.

Beckwith's History also contains information about an A. H. Weeks. He was born May 2, 1840.

I hope the above gives you some idea of what we have at the library. Photocopies cost 10¢ per page plus postage.

Trusting that the above is somewhat helpful to you, I remain

Sincerely,

David N. Lewis

Dear Sirs,

I am a genealogist descended from the Weeks family of Vigo Co, Ind. My great-great-great grandfather, Jesse Barbie married Susan Weeks 7 June 1836 in Vigo Co. She was born 1818 in Kentucky. Do you know if she was the daughter of Lewis Weeks and Susan Hampton (b. 1796, Va.)? Do you have any information on the ancestors and family of Lewis Weeks and Susan Hampton?

Any information would be appreciated.

Thank you,

Sincerely,

Timothy E. Peterman

P.S. - Do you know of anyone researching this family?
